ONE: HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES are now printed of HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE; and more than FIFTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS are paid to American Editors, authors, and Artists, for laber bestowed upon the preparation of a single number. The Magazine is probably read by a greater number of persons than any other periodical published in any part of the world; and more money is expended upon it, for Original Articles and Pictorial Embellishments, than upon any other Magazine issued in the United States.

The Magazine weighs over seven and not over eight ounces. The potsage upon each Number, which must be paid quarterly or yearly in advance, is three CENTs to any Post-Office within the United States.

Terms —The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agebts, or from the Publishers, at Three Dollars or Twenty-Five CENTs a Number. The Semi acrual Volumes, as completed, nearly bound in Gloth, at Two Dollars, or the Muslin Covers at Twenty-five Cents each, are furnished by the Agents or Publishers. Four Volumes are now ready, bound.

The Publishers will supply Specimen Numbers gratuitusly to Agents and Fostmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the Magazine. They will also supply Clubs, of two persons at Five Dollars per year, Numbers from the commencement can be supplied at any time. HARPER & BROTHERS, NEW-YORK.

SCOTT AND JACKSON.—CHARLES SCRIBNER publisher this day. Headley's new workbeing lives of WINFIELD SCOTT and ANDRE W JACKSON. by J. T. Headley. I vol. 12ms, with Fortraits Uniform with "Napoleon and his Marshals."

Scott and Jackson are here placed together as the two military men who have made the deepest impressions on their country since the time of Washington. They both achieved a brilliant reputation in the war of 1st2 and by the battles of Chippewa, New-Orleans, &c., gave their country a reputation at home and abroad, and though differing widely in some characteristics, they were very similar in others. The author has not only sketched the blography of each, but has given a faithful and graphic description of the brilliant battles in which they were engaged. The blography of Winfield Scott, which constitutes the greater part of the volume. Is full and authentic, the materials for it having been derived from public documents, and from many officers who had served under Scott. It presents to the reader also a panorame view of the brilliant campaign of Mexico, embracing the storming and capitulation of Vera Cruz, the battles of Cerro Gordo. Churubusco, Contrensa, Molino del Rey. Chapultepec, storming of Mexico, Triumphal Entry, with description of the seenery, personal incidents, etc. The author has fully sustained the reputation acquired by "Napoleon and his Marshals," and other works, of which over 100,000 volumes have been sold.

Any ope who takes up any of Headley's books may consider his attention mort saged until he has fanished it. He is so thoroughly alive and awake himself, that his energy becomes contagious, and the reader ur consciously comes to share his scal. The characteristic of his mind and style is visible on every page of his Life of Scott, and will give it unbounded circulation and popularity.
